

The Honorable Maryellen O'Shaughnessy
Franklin County Clerk of Courts

Every day, changes occur in our ever advancing, technological world. This statement rings true as I share my new Clerk of Courts' website with you.

During the past several months, a team of my experts devoted their time, resources and skills to re-create, enhance, and update my website. Now you can benefit from their labor and creativity.

My new site incorporates several relevant, technological enhancements:

- > Open data concept puts information about our office and links to other public sector resources, services and organizations at your fingertips;
- > Responsive design guarantees a consistent user experience no matter the device used. No squinting or pinching and hoping that you've accessed the right link. You will get the right information;
- > My new site's display and presentation of information is easy for any user, no matter the degree of involvement with my office or knowledge of its service offerings.

The Clerk of Courts office has been a part of the modernization in the justice system, and its processes and procedures. Because of our current role and past contributions, you can expect many more improvements in the coming months.

I encourage you to bookmark my new website. With its up-to-date and modern features, I know it will be beneficial to you.

New look. New site. Same great service!

Maryellen O'Shaughnessy
